POSITION SUMMARY

The University of Toronto Students' Union (UTSU)'s Vice-President Equity is an elected student leadership position. The Vice-President Equity (VP Equity) is responsible for leading the UTSU's efforts to integrate the principles of diversity, equity, inclusion and belonging into its daily operations and practices. They do this by engaging with the UTSU's internal infrastructure and analyzing it through the lens of anti-oppression, equity, and accessibility, by developing and delivering equity learning programs to student leaders, Board members, and by engaging with the UTSU's equity-focused groups and stakeholders to ensure the UTSU is meeting their needs.

ACCOUNTABILITY

The VP Equity is a leader in the following areas: Internal Equity, Equity Partnerships & Campaigns , Governance & Administration, and Team Leadership & Collaboration. This is an Executive role that reports to the Board of Directors. The VP Equity may have direct reports for whom they are accountable for supervising, from time to time. As a member of the Executive Committee, they report to the UTSU Board of Directors, and are accountable to the President as chair of the Executive Committee.

The VP Equity has a commitment to upholding the values and principles of equity, diversity, inclusion and belonging. Specifically, the VP Equity considers issues of access, anti-racism and anti-oppression, gender-justice, Indigenous reconciliation and acknowledgment, anti-poverty, and other issues of inequity as such issues relate to student leadership and the broader St. George campus community.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

The key responsibilities outlined below are interpreted as being descriptive in nature and are not an exhaustive or comprehensive list of all possible job responsibilities, tasks, and duties.

Internal Equity

- Identify and develop strategies for removing barriers to ensure all students are able to participate in the UTSU's programs, activities, and initiatives
- Lead in the organization, planning, and overall coordination of internal capacity-building initiatives to ensure that internal stakeholders (staff, Board, and volunteers) are aware of relevant structures and issues that impact marginalized community members
- Work collaboratively with the Executive Committee and staff to develop inclusive practices, resources, policies, and tools to support equitable implementation of day-to-day activities
- Support the organization to develop critical cultural consciousness by identifying ongoing opportunities for internal learning and reflection

- Review the UTSU's planned activities, campaigns, and initiatives with an anti-oppression/ anti-racism/ equity lens
- Communicate best practices relating to equity internally

Equity Partnerships & Campaigns

- Implement tailored strategies, with the support of outreach staff, to engage on an ongoing and culturally-informed basis, with equity-seeking groups, under-represented campus communities, and other individuals who face barriers in accessing our programs and services
- Identify opportunities to disseminate information and resources regarding equity and inclusion to the larger campus community
- Develop partnerships with community groups and agencies to support equity and capacity-building work across campus
- Lead on equity-based campaigns and initiatives to support the UTSU in achieving its equity goals
- Conceptualize and coordinate, with the support of UTSU Executive and staff, events such as XAO (eXpression Against Oppression), and other equity-related events, to promote a broad culture of inclusion and belonging on campus

Governance & Administration

- Maintain in depth knowledge and awareness of the UTSU's governance processes, include the administration and procedures of meetings of the board
- Attend the monthly Board of Directors meetings as required and report on the progress of the Equity portfolio
- Coordinate special projects, draft presentations, and other materials for board and governance meetings, as applicable
- Participate in relevant committees of the Board of Directors, as directed
- In coordination with any direct reports, ensure correspondence to the VP Equity is managed, responded to, or redirected in a timely fashion
- Keep careful records of work and progress in Equity activities efforts to support knowledge transference from year to year
- Perform any other such duties as directed by the Bylaws and the Board of Directors

Team Leadership & Collaboration

- Maintain ongoing communication with the Executive Committee, direct reports, or other UTSU staff members with whom you work closely, on the status of your work
- Attend team and staff meetings, as applicable
- Actively seek out opportunities to collaborate and work with others to further shared goals
- Support the sharing of information and knowledge across the UTSU to ensure that student's access needs, student voice, and anti-racism/anti-oppression frameworks are embedded in organizational and team decision-making
- Integrate equity, diversity, inclusion, and belonging principles into day-to-day engagement with other staff members
